Re: Case no. 15-10684

Dear Clerk:

I received the Fifth Circuit's order in the abovesited case affirming in part, vacating in part, and remanding the case back to the district court.

You will note, that the district court served as advocate for the defendants in this case, who were never served, and then proceeded to commit reversible error dismissing the suit as it did.

As an indigent inmate, the $ 505.00 appellate filing fee was a terrible hardship for me. As you know, this $ 505.00 fee was in addition to the $ 350.00 fee for the initial filing in this court, and it took years for me to pay off these fees via many meager installments from my inmate trust account.

The fact that I was forced to pay an appellate filing fee was the direct consequence of this court's error. I ask, therefore, that you reimburse the $ 505.00 appellate filing fee to my inmate trust account at your earliest convenience. I believe a refusal to do so will make for an interesting article in the Prison Legal News.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Sincerely,

Lisa Biron
